++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A dull and wet day.

Today:
Overcast skies dominating with periods of rain, which turns heavier at times across the west and north. Best of any limited sheltered towards the Great Glen. West to northwest breezes. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
More of the same with overcast, dull skies and periods of rain, with heaviest outbreaks expected to the north of the Black Isle. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rather cloudy with further rain, this generally patchy and light, but risk some heavier bursts early in day across north. Some limited brightness developing in the Great Glen from noon. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Rather cloudy with further rain, most of this fleeting and light, but more organised rainband crossing from northwest late Thursday, early Friday, which turns heavy at times across west.
